

Operations Manager – Container

Celsius Shipping offers an attractive position as Operations Manager for our fleet of container vessels. You will become part of a dynamic and challenging environment with a steep learning curve and strong personal development opportunities.

Celsius Shipping was founded in 2012 and is a full-service ship owning and management company. The company has its offices in Copenhagen, Monaco, South Korea and Hong Kong.

Celsius Shipping has been one of the most active ship-owners in recent years and has built a strong presence within the major shipping segments. Celsius has a diversified fleet within chemical and product tankers, container feeder vessels and LNG carriers. In addition, there is a series of 13 LNG and 4 container newbuildings on order, and further expansion is anticipated.

Our vessels are traded worldwide, and your dedicated work and decisions will have a direct impact on the bottom line. You, and the Operations team, are considered “key persons” in our endeavors to optimize the results. You will be surrounded by motivated, skilled, and experienced colleagues with a solid track record in their respective positions.

The Position:

- Have close personal contact with our charterers, technical managers, captains, and other service providers worldwide
- Closely monitor and ensure strict performance in accordance with all charter agreements in place
- Work closely with our chartering department as well as our in-house accounting team & legal department
- Work closely with our newbuilding and sale & purchase department, in particular during the exciting times when taking delivery of tonnage to be delivered to our charterers
- Operate our fleet of container feeders employed on T/C to the major liner companies
- Serve as liaison for commercially managed fleet
- Ensure optimal operations and value creation for Celsius Shipping and our customers

The Profile:

As a person you are efficient and energetic with a good team spirit and a high sense of responsibility. You can communicate with all layers of the organization, including international partners. You are determined and structured and enjoy delivering high quality work:

- Previous experience with vessel operations
- Commercial mindset where you strive to impact the results of all the fixtures/voyages you operate
- Have a financial understanding and previous experience with hire statements and owners' expenses
- A team player that contributes to knowledge sharing across the company
- Excellent communication skills in both spoken and written English, proficiency in a Scandinavian language is preferred

We offer:

- A competitive salary package and employee benefits
- An opportunity to work in a dynamic and international environment
- A challenging and rewarding job with a high degree of responsibility
- The opportunity to be part of a successful team with competent and supportive colleagues
